Amongst real progressives there is usually some honesty and sincerity; but these pseudo-progressives, who are only in pursuit of party objects, have no honesty about them. They enlist negroes to fill up the army, and they tell us very smoothly that it is to relieve white men of part of the burden; that the negro owes service to the Government, just as all subjects do, no matter what their condi-

The real motive does not appear in all that. the negro, and to do what is most insulting to the enemy. It gratifies party pride to inflict on rebels the greatest mortification. Subtract these motives and negroes would not be employed. They would not be depended on in such a contest; for really the more of them the worse. Without them there would be fewer enemies to fight, and less determination to keep up the contest; whilst, in fact, all that are enlisted will add more weakness than strength to the Union armies.

They need not tell us of the willingness of the white man to fight by the side of the negro; but they do not believe it, and the facts are otherwise, as any honest inquiry would

Some of the radicals do not hesitate to leak out the motive at the bottom of all this. Still opposition to this measure is set down as factions; as, in fact, disloyal. Now, the party in power knew, before adopting any of these progressive measures, that they were repugnant to more than half the real friends of the Union. The Administration itself was opposed to such measures, and so pledged itself to the country. The opposition did not arise after the acts. It existed before and almost

When we remind these radicals of the anteedents of this Administration, and all this negro policy, and of its pledges in opposition to them, we are told it is progress. Then they did not intend such things at first; but now they have grown wiser.

So when a man gets aid on his promises and pledges, and breaks them all, he coolly tells his victims that he has made progress, and that he can't stand by pledges made before time had enlightened him. For this progress these treacherous partisans claim credit, and make a merit of their treachery, and denounce he above celebrated CLOTHES WRINGER for Ken- treacherous as themselves in breaking their

The Frankfort Commonwealth thinks the Union party of Kentucky can never belong to a party that acknowledges such leaders as Vallandigham, Vorhees, Cox, Richardson & Co. Well, perhaps not. We can't say what a party in Kentucky will never do; but our opinion is they might as well belong to such a party as to one in which Sumner, Chase, Wendell Phillips and Fred. Douglass are acknowledged leaders. However, De gustibus non est disputandum.—[Louisville Democrat. Leave Mr. Chase out, and all the others mentioned by the Democrat-Vallandigham & Co. on the one hand, and Sumner & Co. on the other—are all working for the same end: The destruction of the Government. Extremes meeting is fully exemplified by those men. The Commonwealth holds nothing in common with either party. We are for "the Union, the Constitution, and the enforcement of the laws." The New York Tribune, Wendell Phillips & Co., have for years coincided with the Southern traitors in whose interests Vallandicham & Co. are laboring, that the Union landigham & Co are laboring, that the Union should be permitted "to slide." And they are working together to hinder the Government from crushing the rebellion.—"Par nobile fratrum;"—"de gustibus non est disputantique in the state of the st

Sumper & Co. do not differ from Lincoln & Co. In fact, they constitute the latter company. How happens it that the editor can act with one set of traitors but not with the other, unless the said editor likes one and does not like the other? The editor may say he will not unite with Sumner & Co. Then is he against them; and, if so, how can he get along? The Commonwealth to-day throws all its influence just where the influence of the New York Tribune. Wendell Phillips & Co., is thrown. The editor of the Commonwealth is aiding the party of Wendell Phillips, Sumner & Co., the party of which these men are acknowledged leaders, who, in fact, control its policy.

BE HONEST NOW IF YOU CAN .- If you can't be much honest, be as honest as you can. The self-styled Union men of Pendleton call for county meeting. The call is quite unanimously signed. They are opposed to the action of the Committee here; but don't say they will send delegates to the Abolition Convention. They will meet to see about it. The call for a meeting in Harrison is very decided against sending delegates to Chicago; but don't say they will send any to Baltimore. The general call issued by R. K. Williams & Co., at Frankfort, requests the counties to send delegates here on the 25th of May, to determine if they will send delegates to Chicago, or any national convention, or, if any, to which Now, all this is ducking, bobbing and dodging, and is none the less culpable in that it does not deceive anybody. If these men were not decided against sending delegates to the Democratic Convention there would be no esced in the call of the Central Committee, of voters and a bushel of perjury." and settled the question of difference after

It is plain, too, that the State has only the lternative to vote Abolition or Democratic. If they will not go Democratic, we see where

Why not say outright, then, that they will support for President the nominee of the Abolition Convention to be assembled at Baltimore? Will it not do to say that out in "meetin'" yet? Can't they tell the people of this State what everybody sees they desire and

We have great need of more buildings in this city, but no one could build now without a cost twice as great as in ordinary speciepaying times. In ten years the building might not bring half what it cost. The scarcity and high price of labor must prevent the building of any more factories or the construction of public improvements.

There is a great lack of lumber, not because there is no lumber in the upper country, but because the river has not been at a suitable stage for rafting in any portion of the last year during the season when it could be brought out of the Allegheny. If the spring and June rise should fail this year, as last, we shall be forced to use something besides pine or cease building altogether. But until the cur rency is settled and we come back to a specie basis, it can't make much difference whether there is any river at all.

Mechanics get pretty good wages, but two dollars now will buy but little if any more than one dollar will in ordinary specie-paying times. It will be for the people generally to The purpose is to destroy slavery, by arming say how much further downward they will allow the currency to go without washing their hands of it. The courts have decided that contracts may require payments in gold, and it is very easy for men to come back to the specie standard when they please, if they are out of debt. Banks can even return to it, resume specie payments, loan money payable in gold or coin, and, as in California, have nothing to do with a depreciated currency. The people will prob ably have to come to this standard, and they had better begin to prepare for it.

A meeting is called in Harrison county o oppose the action of the Central Committee here. The call is signed by forty names. They say:

From the temper evinced by the Convention at Louisville, 18th of March last, towards Cravens, one of the Peace Democrats, who attempted to address that body, these gentlemen know that the Union men of Kentucky have no respect for that faction of bankrupt and defeated politicians. We say the Union men of Kentucky, such as are for overthrowing the rebellion at any cost, at all hezards, and by the use of every means necessary for accomplishing the purpose, despise the Peace Democracy and its leaders, and that Messrs. Guthrie & Co. knew this when they issued said call. They knew they had no power or authority to unite the Union men of Kentucky to the Vallandigham Democracy, and they know full well that the meaning of the scheme is to identify Kentucky with the rebels and their coadjutors.

Exactly so! Notwithstanding they pretend-

Exactly so! Notwithstanding they pretend d to rejoice in one of their resolutions over the success of the Democrats. They did perpetrate the absurdity of insulting one of these very Democrats, who had been invited to address the meeting. We saw at the time that the passage of the resolution was a fraud. They showed plainly they didn't mean what they resolved. These WE HAVE SECURED THE ENTIRE CONTROL OF as traitors to the country all who are not as gentlemen confirm what we said at the time. They had better not take it for granted that the people of this State are with them. In that they may be very much deceived. They esty in these radicals. They are partisans, have one advantage in general. The most ultra carry the day in revolutions.

But if these men are right now their platform was a fraud. They record what they did not intend to stand by That is a charge they can't deny.

The meeting in Boyle county to send delegates, in accordance with the call made by the Committee here, was a failure. Dr. Breckinridge opposed sending delegates to Chicago; so did J. F. Bell. The speech of the latter, considering his antecedents, was a queer sffair. What does he think now of the great constitutional right of slavery in the Territories? Didn't we tell him at the time to stop, or that all rights would be lost in the din of revolution? But neither he nor his party would listen. Now he is opposed to meeting the men of the North, opposed to the extremes of the Administration. He is as far wrong now as he was then. Of all the unsafe counselors in the State he and the Rev. Breckinridge are the most unsafe. He seemed to think there was no way to oppose the Administration in its measures without joining sibly act with a party that contains such men the rebellion. So he moved that the meeting adjourn sine die. It would not do to propose to send delegates to Baltimore to the Abolition Convention; so the wise men of Boyle did nothing. They intend, however, to vote for the Abolition candidate for President,

> The Frankfort Commonwealth, in reply to our question, what foundation the editor had for such charges as he made against Vallandigham, Cox & Co., replies, not by any specification of facts, but by general assertions. The editor asks such questions as these: "Have they not given all the aid to the insurgents they could?" "Have they not, as Government in the prosecution of the effort to maintain the Union?" This is radical logic with vengeance. Of course there is no replying to such very emphatic questions as these, except by the same sort of logic. Now, we affirm, with all the emphasis that can be piled into words, that none of them ever did any such thing as is implied in these questions. We deny it in all the big words in all the dic-Captic to the Choctaw. We say the charge is false, calumnious, slanderous, mendacious, wicked and Satanic, and otherwise shocking to good patriotism and good morals. The following precious foreshadowings of the ordeal through which "Honest Old larly, proved that the Government must fail Abe" has got to pass during the next few months are extracted from an Abolition-Republican-Chase circular. The hostility which ould prompt such attacks must be extremely the President: The people have lost all confidence in his ability to suppress the rebellion and restree the Union. It is impossibe to put out of view the fact that there is a general feeling of disappointment in the loyal North, that after such a wasting of its precious blood, and such a vast expenditure of treasure, the rebellion continues unsubdade and all the promises of continues unsubdued; and all the promises of the Administration time and again for its speedy overthrow have been falsified. Old Abe's aspirations, it is insinuated, are prompted by a desire to continue the war to advance his private interests:

No man with the patriotism of a Washington or a Jackson, would seek to place himself in a position where his interest and his per sonal ambition would be coincident with the continuance of the rebellion and the perpe tuity of the war. Old Abe's antecedents and jokes turned against him:

When the nation again places in the hands of a commander-in chief the lives of all able-bodied men, and all its material wealth, it will want a better guarantee than the antecedents of our joeular President furnish, that the power will be wielded ably, efficiently and surely, for the perpetuity of the Union. Copperheads exonerated:

It will not do to throw the blame upon the country, for it has furnished all the men and all the money the President has asked. It will not do to charge it upon the rebel sympathizers at the North, for they have had no means of interfering with the orders of the President. The responsibility rests alone upon him. He has been weak and vascillating throughout, seemingly incapable of settling upon any definite line of policy in regard to the rebellion.

This vascillation and indecision of the President has been the real cause why our well ap-pointed armies have not succeeded in the de-

It don't make any difference to an Abolitionist how dishonest a man is if he has capacity Who cares for the honesty of the President, unless he be capable? It is not honesty but capacity that is wanted. To run Lincoln will insure the success of the Democratic candidate:

Should Mr. Lincoln be forced upon the country in defiance of the better judgment of the Republican party, and the Democratic party be judicious in planting a candidate for the prosecution of the war, upon the first theory above indicated (which is their theory), Mr. Lincoln will be most unquestionably dethe Democratic candidate : Mr. Lincoln will be most unquestionably defeated, unless he should be tempted, in an feated, unless he should be tempted, in an evil hour, to use the military power in his hands by suppressing the freedom of elections in the loyal States. A victory won by the sword would be no victory, but a lamentable defeat to the friends of liberty. For with an army of more than half a million of citizen soldiers under his command, and an annual patronage of a thousand millions of money, he can, if he has one-half the brain attributed to him by his friends have himself elected from him by his friends, have himself elected from erm to term during his natural life. This is what Abolitionists say of the President. Only those who wear the livery of office, or are in the pay of the Government, are blind to his defects and inabilities: The truth is that there is no man who does not wear the livery of office, or is not in the pay of the General Government, who does not ited mortified and humbled that our nation, with its twenty millions of loyal people in the North, with four millions of auxiliaries in the South, to say nothing of a large host of Union men there, has not succeeded yet in over-throwing the insolent slave oligarchy, which does not number five millions all told

These extracts show conclusively that there is a formidable break in the Republican ranks, which will lead to the defeat of the party, if not speedily healed up and plastered over. On the 1st of October they sailed from New York and reached San Francisco in safety. Eureka, the former residence of Mr. Ricks, and their future home, is a seaport some distance above San Francisco. They embarked for that point Nov. 5th, on the schooner Dashaway, Captain Kelsey, who had on board his wife and child. The vessel is supposed to have been seen Nov. 12th who had on board his wife and child. The vessel is supposed to have been seen Nov. 12th by the Golden State, near Eureka, driven by adverse winds. SHOCKING TRAGEDY-A WOMAN KILLED BY A SOLDIER .- So long as soldiers are permitted to stroll about the city, visiting all the lowest and most vicious resorts, and becoming drunk from the effects of poisonous liquor sold at such places, so long the public will continue to hear of outrages upon citizens, of robbery and plunder, of assaults upon private houses and finally, of those tragedies which are almost sure to follow where soldiers are allowed unrestricted privileges which other men would not be permitted to enjoy.

On yesterday morning at half past nine o'clock a difficulty occurred at a low den in McAlister's alley, between Sixth and Seventh and Walnut and Chestnut streets, in which a member of the One Hundred and Twentieth Indiana acted the part of an assassin, and inflicted injuries upon the person of Ellen Garvey, a woman forty-three years of age, which caused her instant death. The Coroner yesterday morning held an inquest upon the body. Four witnesses: C. Hale, John Garvey, Dora Harris and Mary Jane McCord were examined before the Coroner's jury who testified in substance as follows: On Wednesday night the soldier, whose name was John Welch, went to the house where the deceased lived, and being under the influence of liquor, commenced a wholesale abuse of house for some fancied insult. John Garvey, the husband of the deceased, interfered and Welch left the house. Yesterday morning Welch returned to the house and again, this time without provocation, commenced abusing John Garvey, who or dered him to leave. Welch drew his pistol, one of Sharp's patent four shooters, and threatened to shoot Garvey if he interfered. Garvey picked up an ax and threatened to use it upon the soldier, who fired at Garvey, the ball missing its aim. The deceased then came out, pushed her husband into the house, and taking up a brick, threatened to hit Welch if he did not leave the premises. Welch then fired at the deceased the shot taking effect in the right breast, inflicting a wound from which the deceased expired in a few moments. Welch was arrested by officers Joel Lambourne and Thomas Antle and lodged in jail. The accused will probably have a preliminary examination before Judge Johnston this morning.

The following is the Coroner's inquest, S. Ryan, who was elected. with the verdict of the jury:

INQUEST No. 191 .- Held on the morning of the 24th inst., in McAlister's siley, upon the body of Ellen Garvey, aged 43 years. Verdict— "The deceased came to her death about half-past 9 o'clock on the morning of the 24th, at the place above named, by a pistol shot wound in the right breast, inflicted by John Welch, a member of the One Hundred and Twentieth Indiana."

ARRESTED FOR STEALING A HORSE AND Wagon.-Yesterday evening officers Joel C. Shanks, who was declared elected on the Lambourn and Thomas Antle arrested three first ballot, men, Fred Hendress, Jno. Mrs. Garr had bitched the horse at the corner of Fifth and Walnut streets, while she went to call on some friends, and during the time she was in the house Gallagher got into the wagon and drove off. The parties will all have a hearing before Judge Johnston this morning.

LADIES' FESTIVAL .- The ladies of the new Presbyterian church in Jeffersonville will give a festival in their church this (Friday) evening, to raise funds to purchase an organ for the church. Mr. E. We hope our citizens who sympathize with this object will make a good turn out. The boats will leave Jeffersonville at eleven o'clock this evening on their last trip.

LIQUOR SALOONS CLOSED .- The provost guard yesterday closed the following saloons and arrested the proprietors for selling liquor to soldiers: Union Exchange, on Market street; a house on Eleventh street, between Main and Market, and a place kept by Mrs Hart, on Fifth street, between Main and the river. The parties were released in the even ing. The stock of liquors found in the house of Mrs. Hart was confiscated.

THE MEETING OF THE COUNCIL LAST NIGHT.

The Election of Policemen, City Engineer and Assistant City Attorney for the Ensuing Year.

THE PROCEEDINGS IN FULL.

Upon entering the Council Chamber last night, our attention was attracted by the large number of persons in the room and the unusual stir and commotion. The members of the Council were anxiously sought for, the desks of all were covered with cards of the different aspirants, and everything indicated that something unusual was going on, or about to take place. A second glance showed to us plainly the fact that it was the night for the election of policemen. The different candidates and their friends were busily engaged in electioneering, each urging his claims and soliciting the votes of the different members of the Council. Old policemen, members of the force the past year, and new aspirants, all mingled together, straining every nerve to prove the successful party. The Council was called to order and all the candidates were required to take their places outside of the bar, where, with anxious faces, they awaited the result of the election.

A message was received from the Mayor, calling the attention of the Council to the wretched condition of Second, Third and Fourth streets, between Main and the river, and recommending the regrading of the same and paving them with boulders. The mes sage was referred to the Street Committees of the Eastern and Western Districts. The report of James B. Gregory, City Tax Collector, was received, showing that he had paid up in full. A resolution was passed in the lower board, appointing judges, clerks and sheriffs to conduct elections during the ensuing year. The resignation of R. J. Elliott was accepted.

There being no turther business before the lower board, they took a recess for fifteen minutes, during which interval the candidates again busied them urging their claims. In the upper board no business of importance was transacted.

JOINT SESSION. In accordance with a resolution passed a the last meeting, the Council met in joint session for the election of police. The election of day watchmen, one from each ward was called, at which time Mr. Twyman, from the Eleventh ward, sprung the question whether a man was eligible to serve for watchman if he was not a voter in the ward in which he offered to run. It was decided that they would elect as before, ignoring that question. Before going into the election of police, the election for

OFFICE OF THE LOUISVILLE DEMOCRAT, THURSDAY EVENING. March 24th, 1864. The money market remains unchanged with but little doing. Gold closed to-day in New York at 66%. Since the Government has made such a sad failure in Its attempt to make a uniform currency, except one uniformly wretched, it is a question if it is not for the inter-

English are doing by selling the Californians something they want more than gold. It is a question worthy of consideration whether by concert of action they may not bring business back to a specie basis, and at the same time do the currency business for those who desire it. They cannot be required to redeem their present issues with coin, and by issuing new notes made upon their face "payable in gold" it is possible, if the movement were made simultaneous in different places and only by the b nks in the best credit, their issues might be kept out to considerable extent and the public gain the advantage that may arise from a legitimate paper urrency. Only those wanting confidence in the banks would demand redemption and those now hoarding gold would in many instances make their deposits of coin with the banks. In this way the coin which is now in a great measure useless, might gradually get into circula-tion and be a public benefit. The notes made on the loanes of such issues would of course have to be made payable in coin, or the notes of such specie paying banks as might be bankable at the time of payment. The adantage to the banks would not perhaps be immediate, but after a short time public confidence might be such as to enable the banks safely to extend their issues be yond the amount of the specie in their vaults. There has been a marked advance in whisky and several hundred harrels have changed hands within a few days. It is pretty certain to go up now and the profits of the dealers must depend upon this-whether whisky goes up faster than the currency goes down.

> THE sale of the Plantation Bitters is without preceden $ in the history of the world. There is no secret in the matter. They are at once the most speedy strengthening health-restorer ever discovered. It requires but a single trial to understand this. Their purity can always be relied upon. They are composed of the celebrated Calisapa Bark, Cascarilla Bark, Dandellon, Chamomile Plowers, Lavender Flowers, Wintergreen, Anise, Clover buds, Orange-peel, Snake-root, Caraway, Corlander? Burdock.

S.-T.-1860-X. &C. They are especially recommended to clergymen, pub lie speakers, and persons of literary habits and sedentary ife, who require free digestion, a relish for food, and clear mental faculties.

Delicate females and weak persons are certain to find in these Bitters what they have so long looked for. They purify, strengthen and invigorate. They create a hea'thy appetite.

They are an antido'e to change of water and diet.

They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours. They strengthen the system and enliven the mind. They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers

They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach. They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation. They cure Diarrhea, Cholera and Cholera Morbus. They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

WASHINGTON, March 23.

The testimony of Gen. Hancock before the Committee on the Conduct of the War, in relation to the battle of Gettysburg, detracts somewhat from the glory which has been claimed by Gens. Sickles and Meade. It is to the effect that on the morning of the 1st of July, Gen. Meade directed Gen. Hancock to proceed to the front and assume command of the First, Third and Eleventh corps. Upon, arriving at Gettysburg he found that the First and Eleventh corps. Upon arriving at Gettysburg he found that the First and Eleventh confusion. He relieved Gen. Howard and proceeded to form a line on which the engagement might be fought, this being in accordance with Gen. Meade's instructions. WASHINGTON, March 23.

He was engaged in forming line when the Third corps came up, and a position was assigned to it. He then reported by an aid to General Meade, and the remaining divisions of the army were ordered up. The line thus selected was the one on which the three days' battles were fought; and General Hancock commanded the left on the third, when Longstreet was repulsed from his desperate charge street was repulsed from his desperate charge upon our lines. The fleet reached the Atchafalaya river on Monday, the 14th, when Gen. A. J. Smith's force disembarked, to operate on the land against Fort Derussey, where Dick Taylor was encamped with 12,500 men. As soon as Taylor heard of Smith's landing he attempted to march to the rear and attack him.

Skirmishing commenced on Smith's right flank, before he was aware of the exact whereabouts of the enemy. Being informed of Taylor's design, he exclaimed: "Now for a race between the rebels and us for the fort." By a quick movement Smith, with his army, succeeded in reaching Fort Derussey three hours before Taylor came up. A charge was made, and some fighting occurred, during which our troops had about forty killed and wounded.

The fort was very easily taken, with 213 prisoners, all the garrison, one 11-inch gun, which the rebels had taken off the gunboat and four other guns.

The fleet in the meantime steamed up Red Tiver and Eastnort, and fired two shots.

THE FOURTEENTH COURSE OF LECTURES IN this Department will commence on the first Monday in April next, and conclude the last day of July, 1884. The times have added greatly to the importance of the Medical Professic n. The services of the Junior Members are in active demand, and the Faculty, under the circumstances, have not feit themselves at liberty to permit the ample means of instruction under their control to remain inactive the larger part of the year. Every effort will be made to sustain the established reputation of the Institution for the thorough instruction of is pupils. The absence from home of so many private preceptors has induced the Faculty to arrange for betinners in the College.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD And for the speedy oure of the following complaints. Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

Oakland, Ind., 6th June, 1859

J. C. Ayres & Co.—Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for; years. Sometimes it burst out in Ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loatisome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from anything. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was rejoiced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for I knew from your reputation that anything you made must be kood. I sent to Cincinnait and got it, and used it till iteured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three botties. New and healthy skin so on began to form under the scab, which after a while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully a Yours.

Or J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agen in saying I have found your Sarsaperilla a most excellent alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Discasses of the Serofulous diathesis. I have cure many inveterate cases of Leucorrhoe by it, and som where the complaint was caused by uteration of the uterus. The uteration itself was soon cured. Not ing within my knowledge equals it for these female diagraments."

ing within my knowledge equals it for these females derangements. Marrow, of Newbury, Ala., writes: "A dangerous crarian tumor on one of the females in my family, which had defied all the remedies we could empoy, has at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilia. Our physician thought nothing but extingation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilia as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remains."

NEW OBLEANS, 26th August, 1859.

DR. J. C. AVER—Sir: I cheerfully comply with the refects I have real zed with your Sarsaparitia.

I have cured with it. In my practice, most of the effects I have cured with it. In my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommenced, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Venereal and Mercirical Disease. One of my patients had Syphilitic ulcers in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked to the condary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration of the condary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration of the condary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration of the condary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration are the disorder would be a supported by the condary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration him. But it yielded to my amid and his brain and killing. But it yielded to my amid him well of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers healed, and he level of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers healed, and he level of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers healed, and he level of your Sarsaparilla; in a she without some disfiguration to bis factors. When you was suffering from this polson in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather that on a damp day she suffered excruciating pain in her joints and bones. She, too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy; consequently, these truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me.

One bottle cured me in two weeks, and catored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine J, FREAM.

Jules Y. Gatchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which desiroyed my health. I tried everything, and everything failed to relieve me; and I have been a broken down man for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My belowed pastor, the Rev. Mr. Espy, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew you, and anything you made was worth trying. By the bles irg of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make a new man of me. I feel young again. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough." A g-cat variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of there formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. Some of them may be found in our American Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them. Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia.

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the necessities of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. DRESS, CLOAK & MANTILLA FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness.

Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease. Of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its unrivalised excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of purmonery disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Few are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects—some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to a sure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind the property of the confidence of markind the property of the confidence of the confidence of markind the property of the confidence of the conf

A New Principle in Fireplaces A New Principle in Fireplaces

Has recently been discovered, by which the atmosphere is left in the room pure for the lungs, and that which supports the combustion is taken from the outside of the room. By this arrangement three times the heat will be obtained from the same amount of fuel consumed. It is plais, neat and ornaments!, and will remedy smoking chimneys. This Fireplace is now offered for sale to the citizens of Louisyille and vicinity. A sample may be seen at the office of C.
J. Clarke, at the corner of Second and Main streets, where it may be examined, and persons wishing to take can leave their orders. It can be used in old or new fireplaces, fe28 dim
